ARTICLE II. PURPOSE STATEMENT

The purpose of this organization is to showcase various cultural identities, highlight diversity within the UF campus, and function as a platform for students. The goal of this magazine is to celebrate diversity on campus while educating students through helpful advice, inspirational accounts and to create a publication that is relatable. Relatable, not only, in our written content but with our presented visuals - showcasing individuals that represent various ethnicities, backgrounds and perspectives. This platform focuses on the intimate details of students such as self-care, the importance of mental health, tips on college success and safety, managing finances and the importance in unifying people of different backgrounds and cultures to contribute to the mission of the University, which is to create global citizens. We want to bring people together and keep them together through knowledge about the people around us and the beliefs they hold. Knowledge begets understanding. Understanding begets compassion and we could always make use of more compassion.
